

Chelsea Highlands is a neighbourhood connected by trails. Whether you tend your sunny garden plot, strap on the snowshoes, hit a tennis ball or head to the river for a bicycle ride, the car is unnecessary. The Pathways hamlet sits at the heart of a network of historic trails, all centred on the Highlands Park.

Lot 12 has a very short level driveway into a quiet dale. The property slopes away to the north with open forest vistas. Across the road from the property are several acres of untouched forest. A seasonal stream skirts the far western edge of the lot. Private and serene, this home site is a contemplative oasis on the edge of the Highlands.
