

Just back in the forest, these properties benefit from a great central sun-soaked meadow that hosts several trail junctions and shared garden plots. The perfect balance of privacy and community makes The Meadows ideal for a life of outdoor activity and neighbourly connections.

At almost four acres, lot #31 is the largest property in Chelsea Highlands. With two spectacular possible building sites, this lot enjoys wonderful sunlight and spectacular winter views of fairways six and seven. This special property is home to over a dozen old majestic oak trees and shares a long private driveway with Lot # 29.
